TOE TAG

LOG LINE:

After discovering a mysterious toe tag on Fire Island, Sam Foster seeks to find its owner, unlocking a painful history he himself buried away.

SYNOPSIS:

Based on a true story by Michael Fisher, Sam Foster discovers a toe tag in the dunes of Fire Island. While searching for its owner, he's struck by memories of his lover who succumbed to AIDS. Sam brings the tag to the engraved address, a crematorium in New Jersey. As Sam connects with a stranger also in mourning, he learns his memories hold the true answer to understanding grief.

TEAM BIOS

Michael Fisher (Creator, Executive Producer) is a film maker and visual artist living full time in Cherry Grove, Fire Island. He is the CEO of MYK NYC, a film production company. His artistic background includes a Bachelor's of Fine Arts from Tyler School of Art. Prior to making films, Michael was instrumental in creating the Apple Store concept with Steve Jobs. He also managed retail brand management for Samsung, Coach and Bloomingdale's. His critically acclaimed film, Cherry Grove Stories, chronicles gay history in Cherry Grove, Fire Island from the 1940s to present day. This film premiered at the Flare Film Festival in London and was featured at many film festivals internationally. Michael wrote, produced and directed I Feel a Song Coming On, which was featured in film festivals this past summer. His most recent film project, Toe Tag is based on his true story. As a gay man he has a strong commitment to documenting and highlighting LGBTQ history and experiences.

Jordon Bolden (Director) is a multi-hyphenate out of New York City. A graduate of Carnegie Mellon University, his music videos and short-form narratives have appeared in indie film festivals across the US. In front of the camera, Jordon has appeared in numerous television shows on HBO, Netflix, and broadcast, including the upcoming film "The Kill Room", starring Uma Thurman and Samuel L Jackson. As an out queer man himself, Toe Tag is a uniquely special project, highlighting the importance of preserving queer history.

Allegra Levy (Producer) is a filmmaker from New York City, a graduate of NYU Tisch in the musical theater and film/television production programs. She is a voiceover artist for Netflix's foreign content and her most recent screen acting credits include Bolivar starring Tracie Thoms and Beanie Babies: A Modern Day Icarus Story opposite Kayla Foster and Taylor Trench. As a producer, she most recently completed the film Fin, directed by Jordon Bolden (Kill Room). She also directed and co-produced the music video for CLANCY's A.G. vs. RiRi. In 2023, she will be starring in and co-producing Nude...!, a short she wrote, produced by Kayla Foster, Gabrielle Esposito and Nell Teare for TeareLit Productions.
