| 01:01:20.19 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | You have some coffee?  |
| 01:01:22.05 | KLARA FIRESTONE      | Yeah I thought we'd just have a quick bitebefore we leave, but this place is this is sofilthy I don't want to lay anything down Ibrought a little bit of goodies for us but myhands are not that clean |
| 01:01:35.16 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | That's okay…   |
| 01:01:36.09 | KLARA FIRESTONE      | So if you want the napkin  |
| 01:01:52.06 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | I don't need it.   |
| 01:01:39.08 | KLARA FIRESTONE      | So use this napkin, okay?  |
| 01:01:46.20 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | Auschwitz wasn't cleaner than this!  |
| 01:01:48.18 | KLARA FIRESTONE      | I knew you'd say that.   |
| 01:01:55.09 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED | Two Jews have been sent to assassinateHitler   |
| 01:02:00.03 | ROB REINER           | This is during the war. They've gotten some intelligence as to where Hitler might be   |
| 01:02:05.08 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED | They're standing outside his home  |
| 01:02:07.11 | ROB REINER           | They're hiding, they're waiting for Hitler. Eight o'clock comes, go no Hitler.   |

| 01:02:12.08 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED | An hour goes by, he's not home yet   |
|-------------|----------------------|--|
| 01:02:14.23 | ROB REINER           | Where's Hitler?  |
| 01:02:15.13 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED | Then another two hours go by, he's not home yet  |
| 01:02:18.14 | ROB REINER           | Now it's 8:30 and he still doesn't show up, and one Jew turns to the other and says:   |
| 01:02:22.19 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED | Gee, I hope nothing happened to him!   |
| 01:02:26.11 | MEL BROOKS           | So what is this supposed to be? Crossinglines? Being in bad taste? So should I startthe interview with(places comb to his lip, mimicking Hitler'smustache)Heil Hitler! Is that good? OK. I mean it'suhit's part and parcel, it's in keeping, right?(moves comb mimicking Stalin's mustache)Stalin is nicer, right? It's easier(moves comb back to Hitler's mustache)But this is the guy who made me money, so Istick with him. |
| 01:02:47.03 | JUDY GOLD            | The thing about a joke about the Holocaust,AIDS, the AIDS crisis, 9/11—it's all about thefunny. It's got to be funny. You can't tell acrappy joke about the biggest tragedy in theworld. You can't do it.  |
| 01:03:06.10 | SARAH SILVERMAN      | Comedy puts light onto darkness, anddarkness can't live where there's light. Sothat's why it's important to talk about thingsthat are taboo, because otherwise they juststay in this dark place and they becomedangerous.  |
| 01:03:23.01 | CARL REINER          | I don't have a philosophy about it. I just knowthat it's much more fun to laugh than not tolaugh.  |
| 01:03:29.21 | ROBERT CLARY         | You have to have a sense of humor. If youdon't have a sense of humor, just go to yourgrave. Or get cremated or something.  |
| 01:03:37.02 | ROB REINER           | The Holocaust itself is not funny. There's nothing funny about it. But survival, and what  |

|             |                 | it takes to survive, there can be humor in that.   |
|-------------|-----------------|--|
| 01:03:48.12 | RENEE FIRESTONE | One day, the doctor arrives and who is it, it'sDr. Mengele. And we have to get undressed,he's going to check us, and we werewondering, why are they checking us? I wasthinking, what is the doctor checking? I meanthat was itself funny. But I come in front ofhim and he puts his hand on my shoulder andhe says to me in German, " Genug Specknoch " – "There is still enough fat." And thenhe says to me, "If you survive this war," hesays, "you better have your tonsils removed,you have big tonsils." So, you know, I wasthinking "Is he insane? Tomorrow I may die,I'm worried about my tonsils?" But when Icame back, when I survived and came back,and I thought about what he said, it wasfunny ! |
| 01:04:53.01 | KLARA FIRESTONE | I was thinking that I'll make matzo brei.  |
| 01:04:55.03 | RENEE FIRESTONE | How many eggs do you need?   |
| 01:04:56.07 | KLARA FIRESTONE | Why don't you get four.  |
| 01:04:59.08 | RENEE FIRESTONE | Most people don't expect survivors to havemuch humor after the Holocaust, and that'sreally not the case at all. The survivorsactually have some of the worst gallowshumor ever. And I guess that they're the onlyones allowed to do that!I remember the story that you told me, theywould make parties in their head. There wasno food so they would invent the food in theirhead  |
| 01:05:26.04 | RENEE FIRESTONE | Oh, we cooked a lot! (laughs)  |
| 01:05:28.01 | KLARA FIRESTONE | They cooked a lot! And so, I mean, theabsurdity of some of this stuff is humorous.So they're making parties and they're talkingabout what they're going to serve, and therecipes for it, and my recipe is better thanyour recipe I mean this is an absurdity butit's certainly humorous. And were you  |

|             |  | laughing when you were doing it, at times?  |
|-------------|--|---|
| 01:05:46.21 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                | No, we were not laughing, but the lastsentence always was, "Now you know this willnever happen."  |
| 01:06:00.16 | PRE-RECORDEDAUDIO GUIDE(on headphones) | 235. Ghetto diary, October 29, 1941. Every dayat the Art Café on Leszno Street one can hearsongs and satires about the police, and eventhe Gestapo. The Typhus epidemic itself is thesubject of jokes.  |
| 01:06:13.18 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                | Typhus is a subject of jokes!   |
| 01:06:16.06 | PRE-RECORDEDAUDIO GUIDE(on headphones) | It is laughter through tears, but it is laughter.This is our only weapon in the ghetto.  |
| 01:06:21.15 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                | The only weapon in the ghetto. Laugh at the death.  |
| 01:06:26.00 | PRE-RECORDEDAUDIO GUIDE(on headphones) | Humor is the only thing the Nazis cannot understand.  |
| 01:06:27.22 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                | And that's the only thing the Nazis cannotunderstand, humor . Humor is the only thingthey don't understand. They don't understandlife either.  |
| 01:06:39.18 | ETGAR KERET                                    | Humor is a way of dealing with an unbearablereality. It's a way of protesting, it's a way of-keeping your dignity when you have to dothings that you don't want to do. So if you dothem and you keep your humor it's likesaying, you know, I'm still human. |
| 01:07:00.03 | ROBERT CLARY                                   | (Singing in Yiddish/French) "Bei mir bistu shein…"(cuts himself off)   |
|             |  | And that's all you're going to hear. (laughs)   |
| 01:07:07.20 | MEL BROOKS                                     | I met Robert Clary I spoke a little French, sohe was very happy because he wasn't thatproficient in English in 1952. He was gettingbetter. And now he speaks it as if he reallyknows it.  |

|             |   | ۱۱  |
|-------------|---|---|
| 01:07:21.20 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED                              | Robert Clary was in the camps, and he wouldentertain in the camps, and the entertainmentsaved his life.  |
| 01:07:32.12 | ROBERT CLARY                                      | That was second nature with me. Singing,dancing, clowning around. And that helpedme tremendously when I was deported.Because automatically when I went—even thefirst camp—I started to sing for the peoplewho were there, the prisoners.  |
| 01:07:54.07 | CARL REINER                                       | People are constant. Consistent. And if you were funny before, you'll be funny during, and you'll be funny after.   |
| 01:08:03.22 | ROBERT CLARY                                      | I was 16 years old when I was arrested andsent to the camp. I was too young to reallyrealize what the situation was. I was deportedwith a big amount of my family, my mother,my father, an uncle, a sister with her husbandand two kids. They all went to the gaschambers. Out of thirteen of my immediatefamily I'm the only one who came back. |
| 01:08:43.11 | ROBERT CLARY                                      | For the ten minutes that I worked, or fifteenminutes that I sang, they forgot where theywere, and that was the most important thing.And that's what helped me stay alive.   |
| 01:08:53.04 | CLIP: BRUNDIBARCHILDREN'S OPERA               | (Brundibár Children's Opera, performed in Theresienstadt)   |
| 01:09:03.01 | ROBERT CLARY                                      | Now the first camp, when we entertained, the SS, they didn't come. We only entertained for the inmates.   |
|             |   | But the second camp, why the SS came to seeus, all I can deduct then is they had such aterrible life hitting us and killing us that theywanted to be entertained too.   |
| 01:09:30.23 | CLIP:CONCENTRATIONCAMP CABARETFOOTAGE | (Max Ehrlich's "Lieber Leierkastenmann"plays in b.g.)   |
| 01:09:37.16 | AARON BREITBART                                   | The camps, in certain cases, had a cabaret.But they would never put on anything thatmentioned gas chambers, or the mass murder  |

|             |   | squads   |
|-------------|---|--|
|             |   | It was subversive by nature, but you had to becareful how you did it so the SS guards whocame would not understand that they were theones being spoken about.  |
|             |   | It's the kind of humor that will make you cry.Really the underpinning was sadness.   |
| 01:10:13.00 | CLIP: ZDENKAFANTLOVA                          | I was in the cabaret and it was very funny, very witty.  |
|             | INTERVIEW   | Of course people were laughing! People werelaughing and talking about it the nextmorning, and "How did you like it?" and soand so. Of course, we imagined that we livedin a normal time.   |
| 01:10:30.09 | CLIP:CONCENTRATIONCAMP CABARETFOOTAGE | (Karel Švenk song: "The Terezín March")  |
| 01:10:33.21 | CLIP: ZDENKAFANTLOVAINTERVIEW             | There was a song which we adopted as ouranthem. It went something like, "Let's joinhands, we shall overcome / When the tyrannyends, we shall all dance on the ruins ofTerezin." Well, sadly very few would havebeen able to do so. |
| 01:10:53.19 | CLIP:   | (Translation of song; subtitles)   |
|             | CONCENTRATIONCAMP CABARET                     | We can succeed if we want to, hand in hand.  |
|             | FOOTAGE   | Though times are cruel, our hearts are full of humor.  |
|             |   | Day by day, we go on, moving here and there.   |
|             |   | We'll laugh on the ruins of the Ghetto one day.   |
| 01:11:26.11 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                   | What did you do all morning?   |
| 01:11:27.18 | ROBERT CLARY                                      | What did I do all morning? I don't know, I just talked my head off.  |
| 01:11:32.13 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                   | You did? Did you talk about how funny the camps were? (laughs)   |
| 01:11:35.22 | ROBERT CLARY                                      | Oh God yes. I said it was hilarious! From the  |

|             |                      | moment we put our feet on the ground! Wewere laughing. We never stopped laughing.We woke up in the morning at three, evenwhen they made us walk |
|-------------|----------------------|---|
| 01:11:47.09 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | When we slept we were laughing! (laughs)  |
| 01:11:48.12 | ROBERT CLARY         | Even when they made us walk in the middle ofthe night, we laughed and said "Ha, ha, ha,ha! You'll get your day!"                                    |
| 01:12:00.07 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | Let's talk about the television show you used to do.  |
| 01:12:03.14 | ROBERT CLARY         | What television show?   |
| 01:12:04.16 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | About the concentration camp.   |
| 01:12:06.03 | ROBERT CLARY         | What concentration camp?  |
| 01:12:08.10 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED | Who walked into a producer's office and said,"Here's the idea: a group of soldiers in a Naziprison camp. It's a comedy!"                            |
| 01:12:20.02 | ROBERT CLARY         | You think that "Hogan's Heroes" was about a concentration camp?   |
| 01:12:23.04 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | It was about a camp.  |
| 01:12:24.18 | ROBERT CLARY         | There were no Jews in there. I didn't play a Jewish kid.  |
| 01:12:28.00 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | No, there were no Jews in it, but there wereNazis in it.  |
| 01:12:28.00 | WAITER               | Potato soup?  |
| 01:12:28.00 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | Thank you.  |
| 01:12:32.12 | ROBERT CLARY         | "Hogan's Heroes" was about prisoners of warin a stalag. It was not about genocide, it wasnot Jews going to the gas chambers.                        |
| 01:12:38.21 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | No, of course not! We knew that! That's why it was so funny!  |
| 01:12:41.08 | ROBERT CLARY         | No, but a lot of people always ask me, "How could you have done 'Hogan's Heroes' after what you went though?"   |

| 01:12:48.16 | CLIP: HOGAN'SHEROES       | (Singing in "Alouette" in French)   |
|-------------|-------------------------------|---|
|             | (Robert Clary)                |   |
| 01:12:52.19 | RENEE FIRESTONE               | How did it end?   |
| 01:12:53.21 | ROBERT CLARY                  | We all died! (laughs)   |
|             |                               | Now, when you're gonna die, are you going tobe in a Jewish cemetery? Are you going to beburied?   |
| 01:13:00.16 | RENEE FIRESTONE               | Next to my husband, I have a place next to my husband.  |
| 01:13:03.16 | ROBERT CLARY                  | Not me. I'm not going next to my wife.  |
| 01:13:06.00 | RENEE FIRESTONE               | So where are you going?   |
| 01:13:07.03 | ROBERT CLARY                  | In the ocean. Even though I'm a Pisces and I don't know how to swim   |
| 01:13:09.08 | RENEE FIRESTONE               | NO! You're not going to be cremated.  |
| 01:13:10.21 | ROBERT CLARY                  | Yes I am.   |
| 01:13:11.16 | RENEE FIRESTONE               | No you're not.  |
| 01:13:12.12 | ROBERT CLARY                  | Don't tell me what to do with my life.  |
| 01:13:13.10 | RENEE FIRESTONE               | Now, you see I cannot imagine a Jew to be cremated.   |
| 01:13:17.18 | ROBERT CLARY                  | Now are you going to stop talking to me? Youwant to try my soup? Here, try my soup,maybe you'll change your mind. Yes,absolutely. You know what I said to RabbiHier? Once, we were talking about that, andwhen I said "I'm going to be cremated," hesaid, "You cannot do that." So I said, "Whatabout my parents?" And that cut him down.I'm going to be cremated and then the fish aregoing to eat me. They're going to say, "Mmm,what wonderful French food yum, yum!" Littledo they know I have Polish blood in me! |
| 01:13:53.16 | CLIP: CATSKILLSPROMO FILM | (SONG)We're gonna hitchhike up to the Catskills / We  |

|             |                 | call the Highway Route 17   |
|-------------|-----------------|---|
|             |                 | We're going to hitchhike up to the mountains / Up to the finest resorts we have ever seen.   |
| 01:14:09.10 | MEL BROOKS      | When I was a kid in the mountains, I would do   |
|             |                 | (places comb to his lip, mimicking Hitler's mustache, and shouts in mock German)  |
|             |                 | and I would get a lot of laughs with Hitler.And a few Jews, after the show, would say:"You know, that's not in such good taste."And I'd say"I don't care. I really don't give ashit what's in good taste."                                    |
| 01:14:24.08 | JAKE EHRENREICH | No comedian – ever – in the Catskills wouldcome and tell jokes about the Holocaust. Theywould string this guy up.  |
| 01:14:43.22 | MEL BROOKS      | You know what I was careful about, honestly?I would do this a lot (placing comb to his lipagain) but I wouldn't wear the swastika. Notfor a while, not till I did The Producers.   |
| 01:14:53.18 | JAKE EHRENREICH | Humor healed us, especially in the Catskills.We would go and my mother would laugh likeI had never seen her laugh. There was arelease, because you know it was like akind of community where they felt safe, andthey weren't "the Other." |
| 01:15:06.15 | ALAN ZWEIBEL    | I started writing jokes for stand-up comedianswho played in the Catskill Mountains. I was21, they were like 50, 55. I was a generationremoved from that.  |
| 01:15:19.15 | JAKE EHRENREICH | Jokes about your wives in those days,"Terrible! Did you hear about the man in room302, he came back and found his best friendin bed with his wife. He said, 'Morris, I have to,but you?"  |
| 01:15:30.08 | ALAN ZWEIBEL    | I would write some jokes for them, about howmy uncle was an all year-round camper—atAuschwitz. And they would laugh in the car,or the band would laugh, but there's not achance in hell that you could tell that to anaudience.           |
| 01.13.30.00 |                 | my uncle was an all year-round camper—atAuschwitz. And they would laugh in the caror the band would laugh, but there's not achance in hell that you could tell that to an   |

| 01:15:45.20 | MEL BROOKS  | I was very brave then. Maybe I'm not so bravenow, but I was very brave then, because itwas in questionable taste in 1948 when Iworked in the Right? Two years or threeyears after the end of the war, to be doingHitler bits. |
|-------------|---|---|
| 01:16:06.10 | SUSIE ESSMAN  | Time makes a difference. Obviously no one cares if you make Inquisition jokes.  |
| 01:16:13.23 | CLIP: HISTORYOF THE WORLDPART 1(Mel Brooks) | (singing)The Inquistion, let's beginThe Inquistion, look out sinWe have a mission to convert the Jews(Jew ja Jew ja Jew ja Jews)  |
| 01:16:23.12 | MEL BROOKS  | Had I done "The Inquisition" as a movie in1492, I would've been in a lot of trouble. Butenough time had gone by   |
| 01:16:32.23 | CLIP: HISTORYOF THE WORLDPART 1(Mel Brooks) | (singing)Confess / Don't be boring  |

| 01:16:47.06 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED                                    | Somebody once said, "Tragedy plus timeequals comedy." And I always felt like whywait?   |
| 01:16:54.12 | LARRY CHARLES   | Steve Allen, Lenny Bruce, I've seen all kindsof people given credit for that comment. Idon't know that that's necessarily true, and Idon't know what that time limit is.  |
| 01:17:04.04 | MEL BROOKS  | I don't know Time opens up different avenues of thought and acceptance.   |

| 01:18:01.20 | EUGENE LEBOVITZ        | Shabbat Shalom everybody. Welcome Renee,haven't seen you for a while, I'm glad you'refinally here. Thank you. And now I have thehonor and the pleasure of introducing you toDeb Filler  |
| 01:18:12.11 | DEB FILLER             | Shalom aleikhem! My name is Deb Filler, andmy father was a survivor of the Holocaust, theShoah. Dad always felt isolated, being in NewZealand. So one of the things that he used todo was turn on the TV and say, "That'sBarbara Eden, she's Jewish. And that'sCaptain Spock, the guy with the pointy ears,he's Jewish. And that's Cat Stevens, he'sJewish." And I'd say "Dad, Cat Stevens? Whatare you talking about, he's not Jewish." He'dsay "Yeah, sure he's Jewish. His name wasprobably Steven Katz and he switched it."(Audience laughs)Anyway, so my father, he would always like tochange everything into Yiddish. So, whatabout(sings) No maidel, no kvetchOh, I'm sorry, I'm not going to do that. |
| 01:19:02.04 | DEB FILLER             | Gerhardt, you said you saw it in the camps—my father saw it too—that there was apossibility in the camps to make a joke or asketch or a laugh. Is it possible that it's   |
| 01:19:11.23 | GERHARDMASCHKOWSKI | There were people that were naturallyhumorous, the way they behaved. Like, whenthe SS guard came, the Kapo carried on—youshould've heard him, like, the next minute hewas going to murder us all. And when the SSguard left, "Go ahead!" he said, "do what youwant!" We were laughing. We were allmiserable, but without humor I don't think we   |

|             |                                    | would have survived.   |
|-------------|------------------------------------|--|
| 01:19:40.09 | ELLY GROSS                         | Sorry, I didn't find any humor at all, just sadness and tragedy.   |
| 01:19:47.22 | DAVE LUX                           | I don't know what's funny about anythingabout the Holocaust. I was a child survivor, soI didn't suffer like some of the older peoplehere. It's hard for me to understand how theycould see the humor in the Holocaust ? Ordo you mean after the Holocaust? There werefunny incidents that happened after, I can tellyou a whole bunch of those. But uh, duringthe time you were deprived of a normalhuman life? Boy! I can't even imagine that. |
| 01:20:26.18 | GONDOLA SINGER(singing Volare) | Volare, oh ohCantare, oh ohVolare, oh ohCantare, oh oh oh  |
| 01:20:53.19 | RENEE FIRESTONE                    | Did you enjoy that?  |
| 01:20:55.15 | ELLY GROSS                         | Uh I like to hear the song, but I could not enjoy it.  |
| 01:21:00.06 | RENEE FIRESTONE                    | Why not? With an Italian singing a beautiful song?   |
| 01:21:07.14 | ELLY GROSS                         | Because I remember for so many youngsterswho were perished and they cannot enjoy thisbeautiful place.  |
| 01:21:17.11 | RENEE FIRESTONE                    | But, you know you survived! You're alive !How can you not have pleasure out of the factthat you survived?   |
| 01:21:27.12 | ELLY GROSS                         | Always I remember the children screamingthe selection You know, that is like in ourshadow. You cannot forget! You cannot—  |
| 01:21:36.12 | RENEE FIRESTONE                    | No, no, no no! You cannot live in the shadowof those cries. You have to remember it. Butyou cannot live in those shadows!   |
| 01:21:46.20 | ELLY GROSS                         | I don't live in the shadow, but the shadow is following me all of my life.   |
| 01:21:51.05 | RENEE FIRESTONE                    | You know I speak about the Holocaust all the   |

|             |  | time, but I enjoy life. I'm so happy that I havethree great grandchildren. Could Hitlerimagine that I will survive and have threegreat-grandchildren? I mean, that's myrevenge. |

| 01:22:14.10 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS(Zero Mostel)  | We've struck gold! (kisses script) Kiss it, kissit.   |
| 01:22:17.21 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS(Gene Wilder)  | You found a flop.   |
| 01:22:19.09 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS(Zero Mostel)  | A flop? That's putting it mildly. We found a disaster, a catastrophe, an outrage, a guaranteed to close in one night beauty.  |
| 01:22:26.20 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS(Gene Wilder)  | Let's see it!   |
| 01:22:27.11 | JEFFREY ROSS                             | There's no subtleties when it comes to the Holocaust. The deeper you go with the humor, the more revengeful it is.   |
| 01:22:37.13 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS(Gene Wilder)  | He's wearing a German helmet.   |
| 01:22:39.05 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS(Zero Mostel)  | Shhh! Don't say anything to offend him!   |
| 01:22:41.19 | JEFFREY ROSS                             | Mel Brooks talked about it. Revenge through ridicule.   |
| 01:22:44.20 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS(Kenneth Mars) | I'm not responsible, I only followed orders!  |
| 01:22:47.18 | JEFFREY ROSS                             | So by making these jokes, it's the Jewish way of getting through it.  |
| 01:22:55.10 | SUSIE ESSMAN                             | You know, Mel Brooks always said about The Producers, that he was ridiculing… by   |

|             |                                    | ridiculing the Nazis he was taking away their power.  |
|-------------|------------------------------------|---|
| 01:23:03.02 | MEL BROOKS                         | The Producers was scandalous.It was called "Springtime for Hitler," and JoeLevine said, "I can't put that on the marquee, Ican't sell it." "Springtime for Hitler?" So earlyafter the war?                    |
| 01:23:22.19 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS             | "Hitler" Auditions  |
| 01:23:26.07 | MEL BROOKS                         | Nazis dancing? I got a lot of mail, from Jewsmostly. How could you do this? How could wesee Hitler, how could you show the swastika,how could you?  |
| 01:23:39.11 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS(singer) | (singing)Springtime for Hitler and Germany  |
| 01:23:46.17 | ALAN ZWEIBEL                       | Springtime for Hitler! My God! The audience was like (makes shocked face)   |
| 01:23:52.01 | ROB REINER                         | That's pretty much what I think a lot of people thought at the time. It was a lot of people going (makes shocked face)  |
| 01:24:00.02 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS(singer) | (singing)Look out, here comes the Master Race   |
| 01:24:05.07 | ROB REINER                         | But then after a while you get the joke, you understand what's funny about it.  |
| 01:24:10.23 | HARRY SHEARER                      | When The Producers was a movie, it was daring.   |
| 01:24:15.12 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS             | (singing)Goosestep's the new step today   |
| 01:24:19.16 | HARRY SHEARER                      | The whole essence of the joke of TheProducers was, how could you possibly thinkthat a musical about Hitler was acceptable?That was the whole McGuffin of the picture.By the time it gets to Broadway, a movie |

|             |                        | about a spectacular Broadway failure becauseit was in such bad taste becomes a Broadwayhit because it's not in bad taste anymore!   |
|-------------|------------------------|---|
| 01:24:41.14 | CLIP: THEPRODUCERS | Well, talk about bad taste!   |
|             | (Woman)                |   |
| 01:24:47.20 | HARRY SHEARER          | The passage of time alone has made it so kindof, almost sweet! People sing along with"Springtime for Hitler," there's no revulsion. Ifit had been "Springtime for Saddam Hussein"when it appeared on Broadway, it would havehad the original kick.  |
| 01:25:18.13 | RENEE FIRESTONE        | (Cattle Car)  |
|             |                        | Good afternoon. My name is Renee, and I am a Holocaust survivor.  |
|             |                        | (Student Lecture)   |
|             |                        | I was supposed to go through those chimneyslike my family, my friends. Every morning Iwake up I ask, "Why me? Why did I escapethose chimneys?" I have no idea.  |
|             |                        | (Back to Cattle Car)  |
|             |                        | There were no seats in the cattle cars. And it was packed with people   |
|             |                        | (Back to Student Lecture)   |
|             |                        | Do you know that while we are sitting here a genocide is going on? That's why I am here.  |
|             |                        | (Back to Cattle Car)  |
|             |                        | This almost looks comfortable.  |
|             |                        | (Back to Student Lecture)   |
|             |                        | in 1933, when I was nine years old, I went tomy father and I asked, "Is it possible that thisman is claiming that he is gonna kill all ofus?" And my father said, "Don't listen to thatcomedian. Don't you see he looks like CharlieChaplin? He's going to be out of office in notime." Well my father was wrong. |
|             |                        | They packed us into cattle cars. Thousandsand thousands of people pouring out of thistrain. My parents disappeared in the crowd,  |

|             |                        | my sister was crying.   |
|-------------|------------------------|---|
|             |                        | (Back to Cattle Car)  |
|             |                        | It's hard to imagine how it really looked.  |
|             |                        | (Back to Student Lecture)   |
|             |                        | The Nazi officer, holding on to vicious dogs,taps me on the shoulder and he says, "Yougo." So I am moving with my sister, holdingon, he stops my sister. He keeps looking atme, looking at her Well, I happen to havelong blonde hair and blue eyes. My little sisterlooks completely different. Dark brown hair,piercing black eyes. And I grabbed my sisterand I yelled, "Run!"   |
| 01:27:21.00 | KLARA FIRESTONE        | Here is the picture of my Aunt Klara, who I'mnamed after. And here is the paper that mymother found at Auschwitz, in the archives,that shows that she was experimented on.  |
| 01:27:35.16 | RENEE FIRESTONE        | When I found those papers I also found thedoctor who actually experimented on her. Andthe following day we flew to Munich and I metthe doctor and confronted him with thatpaper. And he said, "Oh, we did only harmlessexperiments." And I said, "Well Doctor, if theywere harmless experiments, why did shedie?" And he had the audacity to turn to meand to say, "Well, we couldn't send her backto the camp to tell everybody what we weredoing, so we had to get rid of her." That's howI found, 53 years after liberation, how I foundout that my sister was shot after theyexperimented on her. |

| 01:29:12.03 | PEEPING TIMES(Actress,Eva Braun)            | It was a bug.   |
| 01:29:13.07 | PEEPING TIMES(Mel Brooksas Hitler)          | A bug? You killed a bug?  |
| 01:29:14.21 | MEL BROOKS  | You killed the bug?   |
| 01:29:16.11 | PEEPING TIMES(Mel Brooksas Hitler)          | A living thing? You just take its life away?  |
| 01:29:19:15 | MEL BROOKS  | She said "It's just a bug! It doesn't matter…"(sweeps desk with hands)I said "Well, why don't you ask the bug'sfamily , how they feel?" |
| 01:29:26:06 | PEEPING TIMES(Mel Brooksas Hitler)          | You just don't kill things! What's the matter with you?   |
| 00:29:29:06 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED                                | You can do jokes about Nazis, but if you sayHolocaust then it becomes, uh, bad taste.   |
| 00:29:39:01 | LARRY CHARLES                                       | That's the thing, there's tons of Nazi jokes, it'slike, there's nothing taboo about making aNazi joke   |
| 00:29:52.09 | CLIP:PROPAGANDACARTOON                      | Schultz! You dumkopf!   |

| 01:30:03.14 | CLIP: TO BE ORNOT TO BE | Heil myself!  |
|             | (Man dressed asHitler)  |   |
| 01:30:04:10 | DAVID STEINBERG             | Anyone who is in a position of extremeauthority is great to make fun of, becausethey're pompous. There's an arrogance tobeing in that position.   |
| 01:30:25.19 | ETGAR KERET                 | Humor is the weapon of the weak. Think aboutthe things that we make jokes about. We makejokes about our bosses. We make jokes aboutdeath. You know, when I was in the army wemade jokes about our commanders. Ourcommanders didn't need to make jokes aboutus, they could just order us to do whateverthey wanted us to do. |
| 01:30:50:13 | LISA LAMPANELLI             | Nazi jokes, easy. Making fun of bad people,easy. Making fun of good people, or tragedy,that's what's hard. So making a Holocaustjoke about the act of the Holocaust in general,and the event, is really difficult.   |
| 01:31:05:04 | MEL BROOKS                  | Do you have a Holocaust joke, do you have aHolocaust joke…  |

| 01:31:08:02 | CARL REINER   | Gee, I don't know any Holocaust jokes. Doyou know any Holocaust jokes?  |
|-------------|---------------|---|
| 01:31:11:05 | MEL BROOKS    | No. I can't go there. I can't I personally, whohas done a musical called "The Inquisition,"with Jews floating around and being dunkedin water and tortured I cannot go there .   |
| 01:31:26:14 | JEFFREY ROSS  | Well, to me, you don't have a Holocaust joke.You have a joke about dating, you have a jokeabout politics, you have the joke's alwaysabout something else—for me—the joke'salways about something else, and then thepunchline is the shocker. That's when youmention Hitler, or the Holocaust or, you know."Auschwitz" is a funny punchline—not afunny topic, but a funny punchline. You don'twant to walk out on stage and go, "How'syour Friday night going everybody? Let's talkabout Auschwitz!" That's not gonna fly. Noone's getting laid after that show. |
| 01:31:58:10 | HARRY SHEARER | A great joke really does trump all rules. Butit's got to be a great joke, and the higher thestakes the higher the standard for how goodthe joke has to be.  |
| 01:32:06:14 | SUSIE ESSMAN  | It has to be funny, if you're going to cross the line, you better be funny!   |
| 01:32:09:08 | ROB REINER    | Of course it has to be funny! Otherwise it's not a joke.  |
| 01:32:12:13 | HARRY SHEARER | A joke about a mother-in-law can be(shows pinched fingers)that good and pass muster. But a jokeabout this stuff has to be like, you know,you're ashamed that you laughed at it, butyou're laughing because it's like, you can'thelp yourself.  |
| 01:32:26:19 | JUDY GOLD     | So, I'll never forget, I actually did have thisthought, and comedians do have thesethoughts that go really overboard, and Ithought, "Could I ever tell anyone this?"AndI'm thinking, "If I had this thought someone   |

|             |                 | else must've had this thought." But I was atone point watching footage of one of theconcentration camps being liberated on oneof the history, you know, World War IIchannels. And so I'm watching this video of aconcentration camp being liberated and Iactually thought to myself, "Now, If I wasstanding on line naked for the gaschambers would I hold my stomach in?"  |
|-------------|-----------------|---|
| 01:33:02:14 | JEFFREY ROSS    | I have a joke in my act now about making loveto my girlfriend, and she's so beautiful Ialways have an orgasm too fast. And I said,"Well, what if we had a code word, somethingyou whisper in my ear to make me forgetabout having an orgasm, just to last a littlelonger." And she said, "Well what do youwant your code word to be?" And I justthought of the worst thing I could think of andsaid, "I don't know, just say, Holocaust." Andthe next day we're making love in themorning, and she's so beautiful and so lovelyI'm about to have an orgasm after twominutes, and suddenly she whispers in myear, she says, "I can't believe those poor sixmillion Jews who died in the ovens atAuschwitz." And I was like, "What the hell areyou talking about? I didn't want a Wikipediaprintout right now!" |
| 01:33:42:16 | KLARA FIRESTONE | Oh, this should be good, Sarah Silverman on the Holocaust   |

| 01:33:49:15 | CLIP:SARAH SILVERMANSTANDUP SHOW                         | I always know when it's Hitler's birthday. Theyannounce it on Entertainment Tonight. Rightbefore they go to commercial you see asilhouette and then they say, "This man isresponsible for the deaths of six million Jews.Is it Ted Danson? Patrick Duffy?My lesbian niece, their whole family is veryJewy, and she called me up and she was like,"Aunt Sarah, did you know that Hitler killedsixty million Jews?" And I corrected her and Isaid, "Ya know, I think, um, I think he'sresponsible for killing six million Jews." Andshe said "Oh yeah, six million, I knew that, butseriously, I mean, what's the difference?""The difference is, sixty million isunforgivable , young lady." |
|-------------|--|---|
| 01:34:39:02 | RENEE FIRESTONE  | Is six million forgivable?  |
| 01:34:40:20 | KLARA FIRESTONE  | Well, that's the joke.  |
| 01:34:43:11 | CLIP:SARAH SILVERMANSTANDUP SHOW                         | I believe that if black people were in Germanyduring World War II that the Holocaust wouldhave never happened. I do. Or, not to Jews.   |
| 01:34:58:04 | RENEE FIRESTONE  | Maybe true.   |
| 01:34:59:19 | MEL BROOKS   | Somebody might bring up, how far are comics allowed to go? Are they allowed to go as far as Sarah Silverman?  |
| 01:35:11:01 | CLIP: AFIAWARDS(Sarah SilvermanhonorsMel Brooks) | (Sarah) Finally, a Lifetime Achievement Awardfor Mel Brooks. Wow! What an elegant way tosay, "Hey! Let's wrap it up."   |
| 01:35:23:17 | MEL BROOKS   | She made a joke about the Holocaust.  |
| 01:35:26:11 | CLIP: AFIAWARDS(Sarah Silvermanhonors                | (Sarah) What do the Jews hate most about theHolocaust?(Audience) What?(Sarah) The cost!   |

| 01:35:33:22 |  | (sighs) I couldn't, you know I couldn't   |

"THE LAST LAUGH"

|             |  | believe it. I did laugh, I have to admit Ilaughed. But maybe the time has come forthat joke, and it works. I don't think that 25years agothat joke probably would'vegotten the biggest "whoa!" of all time.   |

| 01:36:02:14 | MEL BROOKS   | Wow, wow. It's funny—I wouldn't've said it! Icouldn't have said it! It doesn't mean that itisn't funny. Even the rhythm is good. But, youknow, I don't want to you know, it's it's interrible taste, I mean it's dreadful . But it'sfunny! And I admire her guts, I couldn't do it, Iwouldn't do it. |
| 01:36:32:18 | LISA LAMPANELLI  | I mean, she was kind of making fun of theGermans, I guess? How about, like, it's just afunny joke and you're allowed to laugh andyou're allowed to turn the channel. So if youdon't want this kind of humor move along.   |

| 01:37:12:15 | ROZ WEINMAN                     | I think Jerry Seinfeld has been known to saythat Standards & Practices helped him make afunnier show because you can't go the easyroute.  |
| 01:37:23:01 | CLIP: SEINFELD(Jerry's mom) | You were making out during Schindler's List ?!   |
| 01:37:26:04 | ROZ WEINMAN                     | It's harder to conceptually contain yourselfwithin the boundaries and still truly be funnyand "Seinfeld" to me is the classic example.  |
| 01:37:37:04 | CLIP: SEINFELD                  | Medium turkey chili.  |

| 01:37:41:15 | ROZ WEINMAN                     | The one regret I do have of all of the years atStandards, in terms of Holocaust humor, isthe Soup Nazi.   |
| 01:37:50:11 | CLIP: SEINFELD                  | I didn't get any bread.   |

| 01:37:52:19 | ROZ WEINMAN                     | I think the notion of 'Nazi' being used as avery mild pejorative does trivialize thatexperience. And I had no clue at the time thatthat would enter the lexicon the way that it |

|             |   | has.  |

| 01:38:08:04 | LARRY CHARLES   | I don't see the society collapsing as a result of the Soup Nazi.  |

| 01:38:13:05 | LARRY CHARLES   | That's Larry's skill, to be able to find the wayinto a subject that makes it palatable topeople. So is that even a taboo at that point?You know, that's the question.   |
| 01:38:23:03 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM(Larry David)              | Oh, the Rabbi said he's bringing a survivortomorrow. Should I have my father bring hisfriend Solly?   |

| 01:38:30:18 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM(Larry David)              | Do survivors like seeing each other?  |
| 01:38:32:13 | SUSIE ESSMAN  | Well, when I first saw the outline for the"Survivor" episode you know, there's a gutreaction that I have to certain things. TheHolocaust is one of them. There's asensitivity. I'm Jewish, you know. They couldcome back and wipe me and my family out.And, you know, so there's always a little"ungh" that you feel, this little thing up yourspine. |
| 01:38:52:07 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM(HolocaustSurvivor)    | So? Where's the other survivor?   |
| 01:38:56:13 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM("Survivor"contestant) | So here we are in a region of Australia whereof the world's ten most deadly snakes, nine ofthem inhabit this region. It was harrowing.  |

| 01:40:01:23 | ABRAHAM FOXMAN                                 | Jack Benny! Jack Benny probablyinstitutionalized the stereotype of the cheapJew in ways that anti-Semites couldn't haveachieved because more people watched hisshow than watched anything else. Was thathis intention? Absolutely not. But every timehe said it, and because he was Jewish, hegave it credibility. |

The only problem is, thatthe people aren't laughing at the prejudice,they're applauding the prejudice! When thejoke is "Throw the Jews down the well! | 01:42:58:02 | ABRAHAM FOXMAN                                  | Our feeling was, you have made ArchieBunker a hero. They're not laughing at him,they're laughing with him.  |
| 01:43:05:07 | ROB REINER                                      | There were people who agreed with Archie,there were people who agreed with Mike. AndI think that's what made the show interestingand what made it good. You know, we alwaysmade fun of Archie, we as liberals, and so wethought that they were laughing at that. But Ithink even the people who agreed with Archierealized he was a bit of a buffoon, a bit of anidiot. |
| 01:43:26:13 | SARAH SILVERMAN                                 | You can't control how your joke will beinferred. I had a friend Tom Gianas who wouldcall it "mouth full of blood laughs." You know,where they're laughing at the wrong thing.And that's hard, but it's just no longer yours.  |
| 01:43:44:09 | CLIP:SARAH SILVERMANSTANDUP SHOW        | My nana was a survivor of the Holocaust—or,I'm sorry, alleged Holocaust. And she had thetattoo, you know, the number, and thank Godshe was at one of the better concentrationcamps. She had a vanity number, it said"Bedazzled." Which is kind of fun.  |
| 01:44:04:18 | SARAH SILVERMAN                                 | You know, I talked about the Holocaust and I said "the alleged Holocaust" and that's a joke   |

|             | (Interview)   | about Holocaust deniers. And, you know, asophisticated audience would understand thatand maybe a less sophisticated audience maynot. I'm not saying that I'm sophisticated. Butwhat are the dangers of that? That maybe agroup of people will think that the Holocaustdidn't happen? I think that's worth the risk Ithink it's worth the risk. |

|                                       |  | but it was nonsense. To say this is how youbrought attention to the Holocaust? My god,this is how you made it nothing.   |
| 01:45:33:04                           | SARAH SILVERMAN  | I know that it's a real fear in people that theHolocaust would be forgotten. Has it not beenforgotten? There are genocides all over theworld happening and we're not doinganything. They're just not happening to Jews.Might be something to think about whenyou're getting mad at Joan Rivers for makinga joke about the Holocaust which at least iskeeping it, for lack of a better word, alive. |
| 01:46:01:19                           | CLIP: THE SARAHSILVERMANPROGRAM(Sarah Silverman) | Join me at the sports lodge where I'm goingto be unveiling my very own Holocausterection. I've got a real person who was atAuschwitz, plus we have a dunk tank, pluswe've got a lion—"roar!" Don't be fooled byimitation Holocaust memorials, come to mine,Sarah Silverman's Holocaust Memorial.Auschwitz? You'll be saying "Wowschwitz!"  |
| 01:46:43:21                           | RENEE FIRESTONE  | Hi.  |
| 01:46:45:02                           | FLOWER SELLER  | Good morning, how are you?   |
| 01:46:46:19                           | RENEE FIRESTONE  | I'm okay. I need a red rose, can I get one?  |
| 01:46:50:14                           | FLOWER SELLER  | Yes, yes sure. One single red rose?  |
| 01:46:53:13                           | RENEE FIRESTONE  | Yes. Oh my god.  |
| 01:46:55:13                           | FLOWER SELLER  | Here you go.   |
| 01:46:56:13                           | RENEE FIRESTONE  | How much is it?  |
| 01:46:57:10                           | FLOWER SELLER  | Oh, no, no, no charge.   |
| 01:47:19:06                           | RENEE FIRESTONE  | Both of us were survivors, but both of usrealized we are alive and we have to go onliving. You can't die while you are alive andthink of the dark side of life all the time. Youjust can't. You can't survive that way.  |
| 01:47:39:11                           | RENEE FIRESTONE  | I bring a rose because that's what he used tobring me every day, one rose. I will neverforget that.  |

| 01:47:57:15 | RENEE FIRESTONE                               | Whenever I remember I cry, and whenever Idon't remember I laugh, or smile. And I'm gladthat I'm able to smile and laugh. It would'vebeen a horrible life for me for 70 years just tojust cry, and to raise my daughter. She was ababy, I had to laugh with her, I had to smilewith her.   |
|-------------|---|---|
| 01:48:29:19 | RENEE FIRESTONE                               | This was Klara, I don't know, maybe 12 yearsold, 10 years old, I don't know. I think she wasvery cute, she was a little dancer. This was in1948, when I came to the United States. I hadto make her understand that life was good, Ididn't want her to mourn with me the rest ofher life. So, you learn to do what you have todo to live, to survive. |
| 01:49:06:07 | CLIP: TRAILER for"LIFE ISBEAUTIFUL")  | To protect his family, this loving father has to think fast on his feet. To turn the hard truth into a simple game.   |
|             | (Narrator)                                    | Life is Beautiful.  |
| 01:49:24:10 | MEL BROOKS                                    | Life is Beautiful is the worst movie ever made.  |
| 01:49:28:23 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED                          | Seriously, the blurb should be, "He puts the 'ha' in Holocaust."  |
| 01:49:34:14 | MEL BROOKS                                    | To make a comedy about a concentrationcamp and avoid what really went on therewell, it's a great trick but it's absolutelyludicrous.  |
| 01:49:47:17 | CLIP: LIFE ISBEAUTIFUL)(German Guard) | Achtung! (Asks question in German)  |
| 01:49:53:20 | CLIP: LIFE ISBEAUTIFUL)                   | (in Italian) What did he say?   |
|             | (Roberto Benigni)                             |   |
| 01:49:55:04 | CLIP: LIFE ISBEAUTIFUL)                   | (in Italian) He asked if anyone speaksGerman. He's going to explain the camp rules.   |
|             | (Camp Prisoner)                               | (as Benigni raises his hand)  |
|             |   | Do you speak German?  |
| 01:50:03:15 | CLIP: LIFE IS                                 | (in Italian) No.  |

|             |                             | (Nazi quard epeaks in Cormon)   |
|-------------|-----------------------------|---|
|             | BEAUTIFUL)                  | (Nazi guard speaks in German)   |
|             | (Roberto Benigni)           | (Benigni interpreting, in Italian) The gamestarts now: whoever's here is here whoever'snot is not.  |
|             |                             | The one with the least points has to wear a sign saying "jackass" right here on his back.   |
| 01:50:21:07 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED        | He laughs and jokes and kids around, and that's how everything turns out okay.  |
| 01:50:28:00 | CLIP: LIFE ISBEAUTIFUL) | (Interpreting, in Italian) Don't ask for anyIollipops, you won't get any. We them all! I ate  |
|             | (Roberto Benigni)           | 20 of them yesterday. What a stomachache  |
| 01:50:38:11 | ABRAHAM FOXMAN              | Life is Beautiful is absolutely brilliant. It portrays to a new audience that you can take humor, but you can then get their attention, bring them in, and yet to deliver the message of the horror.   |
|             |                             | Now, look, I survived the Holocaust becausemy parents did the unthinkable: in order tosave me they gave me away. So did I notunderstand Life is Beautiful , when this fatherdoes all these crazy things to protect his childfrom the horrors around him? It's not acomedy, it's not a farce. It's such a sense ofreality. And yet I understood when there weresurvivors who said, "No, it's unacceptable." |
| 01:51:38:11 | DAVID CROSS                 | I would think Jerry Lewis would see Life isBeautiful as a shittier version of The Day theClown Cried.   |
| 01:51:47:06 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED        | There's a movie Jerry Lewis made called TheDay the Clown Cried where he's a clownwho's put into a concentration camp and hisjob is to entertain the children as they'rebeing pushed into the gas chambers.  |
| 01:52:06:01 | DAVID CROSS                 | No one's seen it—I mean, human beings haveseen it, not many, I know Harry Shearerinfamously is one of the very few peoplewho's seen it.   |
| 01:52:13:08 | HARRY SHEARER               | I am one of the handful of people I don't even know if it's a handful, it may be two  |

|             |   | fingers.  |
|-------------|---|---|
|             |   | A rough cut had become available. It was astartling experience. It's a material that you'dhave to be so sublimely careful with whetheryou're being funny or not.  |
| 01:52:35:05 | DAVID CROSS   | The idea itself is not laughably bad. JerryLewis wrote the script, just tonally it's all overthe place. At times it's Life is Beautiful , and attimes it's Dumb and Dumber.   |
| 01:52:50:22 | HARRY SHEARER   | It sort of luxuriated in this mawkishsentimentality which just made it ludicrous. Ithink I said that it was like seeing a Tijuanavelvet clown painting of the Holocaust.  |
| 01:53:05:06 | DAVID CROSS   | As you might imagine he's not proud of it. Idon't think he's under some delusion that it'sa work of art that, you know, is beingsuppressed by big, you know, pro-Palestinians (laughs).   |
|             |   | It just wasn't his time man, he was too aheadof his time. If he had waited 25 years then,yeah, he'd be bounding over the those seats,grabbing his Oscar.  |
| 01:53:29:15 | HARRY SHEARER   | If you're trying to be serious about a matterlike this, it could be just as dangerous in thewrong hands as being funny about it.  |
| 01:53:41:16 | LISA LAMPANELLI   | To people who say, "Don't make these jokes'cause they're in the wrong hands," like,whose hands are right? If comics can't pointout what's ridiculous in the world, and thetragic in this world, who else is going to pointit out? |
| 01:53:53:22 | KLARA FIRESTONE   | Here's someone who's not Jewish, LisaLampanelli at the David Hasselhoff roast.  |
| 01:54:01:15 | CLIP: DAVIDHASSELHOFFROAST(Lisa Lampanelli) | David Hasselhoff is a legend! I giant intelevision and music. David, your singing ishuge in Germany. If they had played yourmusic in Auschwitz the Jews would'vesprinted for those ovens.   |
| 01:54:19:00 | RENEE FIRESTONE   | I don't think it's funny.   |

| 01:54:21:17 | ALAN ZWEIBEL                               | I think the initial reaction when a non-Jewmakes a Holocaust joke is that they're makingfun of the Holocaust, and who are you tomake fun of of that? You weren't there, youweren't affected, okay? We were and we areallowed to joke about it, okay? Just likeAfrican Americans are allowed to say certainwords that—God forbid—a big Jew from LongIsland, if I said it, I'd get my ass in trouble.                     |
|-------------|--|---|
| 01:54:48:00 | LARRY CHARLES                              | Jews have their turf, gay people have theirturf, black people have their turf. And whenpeople transgress those turfs, you can runinto problems.   |
| 01:54:56:16 | CLIP: CHRIS ROCKSTANDUP SHOW           | I ain't never been in a barbershop and heard abunch of brothers talking about Jews. Blackpeople don't hate Jews black people hatewhite people. We don't got time to dice whitepeople into little groups! I hate everybody!   |
| 01:55:11:20 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED                       | I have a really hard time deciding who's going to get offended by what.   |
| 01:55:20:22 | LARRY CHARLES                              | Culture shifts, and the words or the taboosubject shifts as well. It's no longer a taboo.You can make fun of Lincoln's assassination,you can make fun of the crucifixion—youcan't make fun of Mohammed. That's still ataboo subject, you know. And that's truly ataboo subject because if you do make fun of ifthere's a good chance someone's going tothrow a bomb through your window like theDanish cartoonists. |
| 01:55:43:22 | CLIP: THE DAILYSHOW(Jon Stewart)   | Uh, I want to say, despite last week'ssenseless attacks on the French satiricalmagazine Charlie Hebdo, we all rememberSunday's inspirational march through Paris.Millions standing against terrorism that madeplain the message: in a free society,expression without fear of persecution is abasic right.  |
| 01:56:02:06 | CLIP: THE DAILYSHOW(Male Reporter) | The anti-Semitic comedian Dieudonnéarrested for incitement after his Facebookpost that supported the attackers.   |

|             | 1  |   |
|-------------|--|---|
| 01:56:09:00 | CLIP: THE DAILYSHOW(Female Reporter) | He tweeted "Je suis Charlie Coulibaly," the name of one of the attackers.   |
| 01:56:14:18 | CLIP: THE DAILYSHOW(Jon Stewart)     | Man! Arresting someone for sayingsomething days after a rally supporting theright of free expressioneeeeeh, it's a littleweird. Maybe if we knew more about theculprit  |
| 01:56:28:21 | CLIP: THE DAILYSHOW(Female Reporter) | Dieudonné is very controversial, he had a tourcanceled last year because of this anti-Semitic routine that he does.   |
| 01:56:37:00 | CLIP: THE DAILYSHOW(Jon Stewart)     | Oh man, this sucks! Je suis confused.   |
| 01:56:43:10 | SARAH SILVERMAN                              | When speech gets censored, it's dangerousbecause it makes it more taboo. It's likeCatholic schoolgirls who are told they'regoing to go to hell if they have sex beforemarriage end up being slutty because it's allpent up, fucked up shit.   |
|             |  | Miss Hitler: they're doing a racist beautypageant.  |
|             |  | There was a list of what you need to qualify torun for Miss Hitler. Be polite to yourcompetitors, and you must hate Jews. But,you know, I'm always pleased to see thingslike that, and like to point to them because Imean, it would be better if it didn't exist, butthe fact that it does, it's always nice that it'smore than just a gas in the air, you know? It'ssomething you can point to and see. I thinkit's more effective when people can go, "Ohmy god, that's awful, and hilarious. It's awfulhilarious." |
| 01:57:49:07 | CLIP: MANHATTAN(Woody Allen)             | Has anybody read that Nazis are going toMarch in New Jersey, you know? I read this inthe newspaper. We should get down there, getsome guys together, you know, get somebricks and baseball bats and really explainthings to them.   |

| 01:57:59:04 | CLIP: MANHATTAN(Male Party Guest)      | There was this devastating satirical piece on that on the op-ed page of Times. It is devastating.   |
|-------------|--|---|
| 01:58:03:06 | CLIP: MANHATTAN(Woody Allen)           | Well, a satirical piece in the Times is one thing, but bricks and baseball bats really gets right to the point.   |
| 01:58:07:21 | CLIP: MANHATTAN(Female PartyGuest) | Oh, but really biting satire is always better than physical force.  |
| 01:58:11:13 | CLIP: MANHATTAN(Woody Allen)           | No, no, physical force is always better withNazis. It's hard to satirize a guy with shinyboots.   |
| 01:58:24:01 | CLIP: SCHINDLER'SLIST(Young Girl)  | Goodbye Jews! Goodbye Jews! GoodbyeJews!  |
|             |  |   |
| 01:58:29:03 | CLIP: CONAN                                | I know how movies are made, so I know   |
|             | (Louis C.K.)                               | somewhere there is a tape of like fifty littlegirls trying really hard, trying to get the"goodbye Jews" part.   |
|             |  | (little girl voice) "Hi my name is Anne Marieand I'm with William Morris, 'Goodbye Jews,''Goodbye Jews.'"   |
|             |  | (casting guy voice) "OK, next."   |
|             |  | And then comes the girl who's amazing, andher mother has prepared her for months, sheknows how to walk in the room:   |
|             |  | (little girl voice) "Hi my name is Louise and Iam really happy to meet you! (singing) Thesun will come out, tomorrow! Bet your …"   |
|             |  | (casting guy voice) "We just need the line, actually."  |
|             |  | (little girl voice) "Oh, I'm sorry. GOODBYEJEWS! GOODBYE JEWS!"   |
| 01:59:14:08 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED                       | I love when people say, "How could you makejokes? Don't you realize what a tragicsituation that is, how horrible that is? Aren'tyou aware that?" And I always go, "Uh, yes, Iam aware of that, and that's where the jokes |

|             |  | stem from."   |
|-------------|--|---|
| 01:59:36:07 | ALAN ZWEIBEL                                 | Are there things that go over the line? YeahI'm sure that there are. But I don't know if mykids will consider it over the line.   |
| 01:59:44:08 | LARRY CHARLES                                | I have no line. I mean, I think it's a case-by-case basis.  |
| 01:59:47:22 | SUSIE ESSMAN                                 | My line is, really, I think child molestation—asa comedian, that's my line. Maybe it's being aparent, whatever it is, there's just nothingabout child molestation or rape that I findfunny. I just don't find it funny. Somebody canmake it funny   |
| 02:00:02:17 | CLIP: SATURDAYNIGHT LIVE(Louis C.K.) | There's no worse life available to a humanthan being a caught child molester. And yetthey still do it! Which you can only reallysurmise that it must be really good. I mean,from their point of view. (audience groans)From their—not ours—but from their point ofview, it must be amazing for them to risk somuch.   |
| 02:00:27:21 | CLIP: GEORGECARLIN STAND UP              | Oh, some people don't like you to talk likethat, some people like to shut you up forsaying those things. You know that, lots ofpeople, lots of groups in this country want totell you how to talk, want to tell you what youcan't talk about. Or sometimes they'll say youcan talk about something but you can't jokeabout it. Say you can't joke about somethingcause it's not funny. Comedians run into thatshit all the time.  |
| 02:00:50:02 | LARRY CHARLES                                | I wrote a "Seinfeld" script where Elaine buys agun. We cast it, we started building the sets,and NBC said, "You can't make that show."That was more controversial to them than themasturbation episode, the idea that Elainewould go and buy a gun to protect herself atthat time, which was in the early '90s.Ironically still extremely relevant today, youknow. And one of the reasons it's relevant,one of the reasons it's still taboo, is becauseit really hasn't been dealt with, it hasn't beendelved into. |

| 02:01:16:20 | JUDY GOLD                                | I don't know, I think it really depends on how horrific. Like 9/11? Not funny.  |
|-------------|--|---|
| 02:01:25:00 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM            | Is that you?  |
|             | (Larry David)                            |   |
| 02:01:25:18 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM            | It's, uh, it's Eddie Silverman, he's my, uh,brother-in-law. He, uh, he died on September11 th .  |
|             | (Rabbi)                                  |   |
| 02:01:37:22 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM            | Oh my gosh. Oh, I'm so sorry.   |
|             | (Larry David)                            |   |
| 02:01:40:07 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM            | Yeah, terrible.   |
|             | (Rabbi)                                  |   |
| 02:01:42:09 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM            | He was in the building?   |
|             | (Larry David)                            |   |
| 02:01:44:10 | CLIP: CURB YOURENTHUSIASM(Rabbi) | No, no, he was uptown on 57 th Street. He gothit by a bike messenger.  |
| 02:01:53:13 | JEFFREY ROSS                             | You know, you had a desperate feeling after9/11 that comedy was over. No one in mygeneration had experienced that. And I evencalled my manager, Bernie Brillstein at thetime, and he's a Hollywood legend, and hewas sort of speechless, he didn't know whereto go. And when the old people don't knowwhat to do you start to get nervous. |
| 02:02:15:14 | GILBERTGOTTFRIED                     | There was a weird feeling like, "Ooh there'll never be comedy ever again."  |
| 02:02:21:07 | JEFFREY ROSS                             | Sounds crazy now, but that was the feeling on9/12, 9/13, 9/14, 9/15. Like: gigs werecancelled It was like being a pilot after 9/11in a way, where you were like, "Am I out ofwork? Are we going to fly again?"  |

| 02:02:37:07 | ALAN ZWEIBEL                                    | "Saturday Night Live" cancelled a show—Iwasn't with the show, I'm just a viewer at thispoint—and their first live show back they hadGiuliani on, and I remember Lorne looking athim, and he says, "Are we allowed to befunny?"   |

| 02:02:54:15 | CLIP: SATURDAYNIGHT LIVE(Rudy Giuliani) | Why start now?   |
| 02:02:58:15 | ALAN ZWEIBEL                                    | Lorne's asking that was so in the moment.Had enough time passed?   |
| 02:03:03:22 | CLIP: SATURDAYNIGHT LIVE(Rudy Giuliani) | Live! From New York  |
| 02:03:05:11 | ALAN ZWEIBEL                                    | Clearly not enough time had passed. But the laugh that it got was such a release. It was cathartic and healing.   |
| 02:03:19:14 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                 | Bernard used to make the morning coffee forme. Ever since he died, I sleep with thetelevision on. And I remember I woke up earlyin the morning, I heard the commentatorsaying a plane just hit one of the towers. Icouldn't believe I was wide awake rightaway, needless to say, and I thought tomyself, "How lucky for Bernard that hedoesn't hear these terrible things that arehappening today in the world."   |
|             |   | You know, I just came back from Rwanda. Thestories I heard there, also, just unimaginable.We think the Holocaust was the worst thingthat ever happened. The fact is that, youknow, the Holocaust lasted twelve years.Within those twelve years, six million Jewswere murdered in the Holocaust. In Rwanda,within four months, one million Tutsis weremurdered. So, you know, if you think aboutit And this is after the Holocaust, when wekeep saying "Never again"? So that's wherewe are. |
| 02:04:59:19 | CLIP: SATURDAY                                  | Now we got the Freedom Tower. They should  |

|             | NIGHT LIVE                | change the name from the Freedom Tower to  |
|-------------|---------------------------|--|
|             | (Chris Rock)              | the Never Going In There Tower. Because I'mnever going in there. In the same spot theyput another skyscraper? Does this buildingduck? What were they thinking? Who's thecorporate sponsor, Target?   |
| 02:05:24:14 | LARRY CHARLES             | Subjects come up that are seeminglyinappropriate for comedy, and that's the placethat's the most interesting to explore. If youcan find humor in things that are absolutelynot funny by most traditional standards, youare mining material that's kind of fresh. |
| 02:05:41:02 | CLIP: LIFE'S TOOSHORT | What seems to be the problem?  |

|             | (Stephen Merchant)        | sketch, and I just wonder if perhaps, just forthe sake of comedy, you might not want tohave contracted AIDS from an Africanprostitute, just.   |
| 02:06:02:01 | CLIP: CONT.               | Knock knock.   |

|             | (Stephen Merchant)                             | AIDS, and famine, are just not really subjects for comedy.   |
| 02:06:18:00 | CLIP: CONT.                                    | Well, why does he get away with it then?   |

| 02:06:21:16 | LARRY CHARLES                                  | That's to me the definition of true taboo, whenthere are consequences as a result. Whenpeople just laugh and then go back to doingwhat they were doing, that's not really taboo.That's socially acceptable controversial,provocative perhaps, but socially acceptable.   |
| 02:06:36:02 | CLIP: SATURDAYNIGHT LIVE(Leslie Jones) | Back in the slave days, I would've never beensingle. I'm six feet tall and I'm strong, Colin,STRONG! I mean, look at me, I'm a mandingo!Master would've hooked me up with the bestbrother on the plantation. And every ninemonths I'd be in the corner having a super-baby. Every nine months! Every nine monthsI'd just be in the corner just popping them out.Just: Shaq! Kobe! LeBron! |
| 02:07:01:08 | LARRY CHARLES                                  | It's okay to say these things on TV, throughthe broadcast media They're letting you sayit. If they really felt it was dangerous, if they   |

|             |                                       | really felt it was taboo, then you wouldn't be  |

| 02:07:47:08 | LARRY CHARLES                         | All these things I've been talking about, all the things that I've worked on, we're not truly transgressing. As long as the powers that be let us do it, it means we haven't transgressed. |
| 02:07:55:22 | CLIP:AMY SCHUMERSTAND UP SHOW | I'm glad you guys laughed at that, that doesnot always work. I mean, nothing works 100%of the time, right? Except Mexicans, I'venoticed   |
|             |                                       | (Audience boos)   |
|             |                                       | That's the one? "Boo!" Right, "Boo,Mexicans!" I hear you, you guys arepreaching to the choir.   |
| 02:08:15:12 | LARRY CHARLES                         | When they throw me in jail for making Borat , then you know we've dealt with a taboo subject.  |

| 02:08:20:21 | CLIP: THE STEVEALLEN SHOW(Steve Allen)           | Here he is, a very shocking comedian, themost shocking comedian of our time, a youngman who is skyrocketing to fame: LennyBruce!  |
| 02:08:28:05 | CLIP: THE STEVEALLEN SHOW(Lenny Bruce)           | By the way, are there any niggers heretonight? (whistles) "What did he say? Arethere any niggers here tonight? What, is he sodesperate for shock value?" Ah, I think I seeone nigger couple back there between thosetwo niggers and three kikes. You have twospics, one mick, three kikes, and one spunky,funky honky. The point(audience laughs)if President Kennedy got on televisionevery day and said, "I would like to introduceall the niggers in my cabinet." And every dayyou heard, "Nigger, nigger, nigger, nigger,nigger," nigger would lose its impact and thenit would never make any four-year old niggercry when he came home from school. |
| 02:08:59:10 | DAVID STEINBERG  | I couldn't get over what it was to listen toLenny Bruce. You were hearing ideas that youknew were accurate. He talked about Jesus,talked about black people, talked about gaypeople when no one was doing it. And inChicago, Mayor Daley—very Catholic city—they threw him off the stage, put him in jail.  |
| 02:09:23:04 | CLIP:LENNY BRUCESTAND UP SHOW(Lenny reading) | This is the defendant Lenny Bruce charged intwo separate counts, giving an indecentperformance all performances wereobscene, indecent, immoral and impure. In thelatter two performances, words such as ass,balls, cocksucker, cunt, fuck, motherfucker,piss, screw, shit, and tits were used about onehundred times in utter obscenity.  |
| 02:09:37:19 | DAVID STEINBERG  | Sometimes it's important to be ahead ofsociety. Just because it's uncomfortabledoesn't mean that it's the wrong thing.Sometimes it means it's exactly the rightthing.  |
| 02:09:49:09 | ALAN ZWEIBEL   | I think we're at a point now where the bar isreally low. And in a strange way, I think it's agood thing. I think it helps us remember.  |

| 02:10:00:11 | KLARA FIRESTONE                         | Let's see, did we look at Ricky Gervais?  |
|-------------|---|---|
| 02:10:03:14 | CLIP:RICKY GERVAISSTAND UP SHOW | I watch hours on end of the History Channeland Discovery Channel now, just back andforth, like six hour stints of History Channel,Discovery Channel, back and forth. Ask meanything about sharks and Nazis.   |
|             |   | The shark's an amazing creature. It can tasteand smell the slightest human secretion ofblood and sweat, one part in a billion, from amile away. A shark would've found AnneFrank like that (snaps fingers).   |
| 02:10:30:14 | ALAN ZWEIBEL                            | I actually don't know how this has happened,but in the last five years, seven years, all of asudden, it's been open season on AnneFrank.  |
| 02:10:40:08 | CLIP:RICKY GERVAISSTAND UP SHOW | She had time to write a novel, for Christ's sake. It ends a bit abruptly, and no sequel—lazy.   |
| 02:10:51:21 | ALAN ZWEIBEL                            | There's this book, Hope: A Tragedy aboutAnne Frank. She survived, she's pissed off,she wrote this diary that sold 32 millioncopies, she didn't get a nickel, and here sheis: she's writing a novel and she's not leavingthis guy's attic until she's done with thenovel.   |
| 02:11:09:08 | SHALOMAUSLANDER                     | Took a while writing the scene where he firstmeets Anne Frank. "How dare you say you'reAnne Frank, that's an insult to the deaths ofwhoever, of millions of people, I had relativeswho died there," and she says, "First of all I, Ididn't die in Auschwitz, jackass, I was inBergen-Belsen, and by the way, about allthose family members you lost?" and shepulls up her sleeve and shows her numbers.And the line was, "Blow me' said AnneFrank." |
|             |   | I remember I stopped writing and Iimmediately called my wife and I said, "I thinkI know what this book is about." And then Iimmediately called my shrink. (laughs)  |

|-------------|-------------------------------|--|
| 02:11:45:17 | ALAN ZWEIBEL                  | The outrage that some people had because he made Anne Frank this crusty old lady!  |
| 02:11:52:05 | SHALOMAUSLANDER           | The book I wrote before this was all about myrelationship with God, and I got a certainamount of shit for it. But among Jewishpeople, you can shit on God before you canshit on Anne Frank.  |
| 02:12:03:21 | CLIP: SOUTH PARK(Cartman) | Shh! Mr. Kitty you have to be quiet or else they're gonna find you.  |
| 02:12:07:04 | SHALOMAUSLANDER           | We have greed and guilt and wars andgenocides and there's nothing we can doabout it. I've read God's answers, I've readSpinoza's answers—there's no answer.They're both dead. (chuckles) And so the onlyway I can deal with the reality of existence isto laugh at it.   |
| 02:12:30:20 | HANALA STADNER                | My mother would always bring up theHolocaust. "For you I lived through Hitler, youcan't make the bed?" I said, "Ma, you ranthrough the forest after finding out your wholefamily got killed in gas chambers Ma, howdid you do it? And she said, "It was novacation." You know, that was how my motherspoke.  |
| 02:12:50:04 | RENEE FIRESTONE               | Well, when I was about 18 years old my fathercame home from a business trip, and we runto him, "Daddy what did you bring?" That's allwe were interested, that he came home, thatwasn't important, but what did he bring?   |
| 02:13:02:22 | HANALA STADNER                | So that happened in Hungary too?   |
| 02:13:04:07 | RENEE FIRESTONE               | Yes, of course. So he opens this box and outof this box comes this most beautiful bathingsuit. It had a satin, shiny finish, most beautifulfloral print. And I remember parading aroundin this bathing suit, around the swimmingpool. And the boys whistled at me, and mygirlfriends are making, you know, nastyremarks, they were very jealous. And whenthey came and escorted out of the home, I putthis bathing suit under my dress, I put it on. I |

|             |   | thought nobody will know. And that's how Ileft, and that's how I arrived to Auschwitz. Ijust couldn't take this bathing suit off mybody.We were supposed to get undressed, to take a   |
|-------------|---|--|
|             |   | shower. Then all of a sudden I felt heat on myface. One of the Nazi soldiers slapped me. Istarted to cry. And I peeled this bathing suitoff my body, I folded it very neatly, and I left iton the pile of my clothing. And with thatbathing suit, I didn't only leave thosememories, I also left my family, my friends,my neighbors, and six million Jews behind.So this bathing suit is always on my mind.  |
| 02:14:39:07 | HANALA STADNER                            | I was going to eat that whole cheese Danish.Here, you eat it now. Here, here, you deserveit. Oh my God.  |
| 02:14:50:08 | AUDIO CLIP:FRESH AIR(Terry Gross) | This is "Fresh Air," I'm Terry Gross. My guestis Israeli writer Etgar Keret. He's written a newcollection of personal essays about the sevenyears between his son's birth and his father'sdeath. His father survived the Holocaust byliving in a hole with his parents for nearly twoyears.  |
| 02:15:08:13 | ETGAR KERET                               | I asked my father, "How come you're such ahappy, and optimistic, and believing man?"And my father thought for a second and hesaid, "You know, I have a theory that everyperson in this world is the world champion insomething. But the tragedy is that most of usnever discover what we're really good at, youknow? You could be an amazing tennis playerbut play the piano, you know? And with me,"he said, "it was only during the war that Idiscovered my true talent." And he said "I'mextremely good at sleeping. And whathappened was when we were in that hole inthe ground, I slept. And every once in a while Iwould wake up and I would say to my father,'Father, is the war over?' and he said 'No,' andI would go and sleep some more." |
| 02:15:55:15 | ROZ WEINMAN                               | My parents told the stories of the Holocaust in a very matter-of-fact way. And I think there   |

|             |  | was a comfort level for them because theyhad lived through the Holocaust, they hadsurvived the very worst, they had lost—notjust lost loved ones, but in many casesliterally were forced to watch loved onesbeing killed. They went to the "Sophie'schoices," they went through all of that and yetcame out at the other end and came toAmerica. I think for the children, however, thatfor many of us, the experience of hearingthose stories and not having lived throughthem meant that we did not vanquish thedemons. The demons just got larger in ourcollective imaginations, in our individualimaginations, and there was a real fear aroundit. |

| 02:16:42:17 | JAKE EHRENREICH                                  | I found a way to tell my family story in a joyfulway, in an optimistic way. But my family was adisaster. A broken family.  |
| 02:16:51:10 | ETGAR KERET                                      | My father, when he talked about they years ofthe Holocaust, he said, "These were the worstyears of my life, but they were years of mylife. The first girl I ever kissed, the firstcigarette I ever smoked"   |
| 02:17:07:08 | ROZ WEINMAN                                      | There was very much the notion that we madeit, everyone who made it was part of thesurvivor community, and the obligation wasto live well, love, eat well, have fun, get loadedat bar mitzvahs and weddings, and enjoy life,because the true sin was if you didn't afterthat experience then it was a waste, and thenHitler would have had the last laugh.   |

| 02:17:48:18 | MEL BROOKS                                       | Comics are the conscience of the people, andthey are allowed a wide berth of activity inevery direction. Comics have to tell us whowe are, where we are, even if it's in bad taste.  |

| 02:18:10:20 | SUSIE ESSMAN         | Isn't laughter the greatest gift that we've beengiven as human beings? Isn't that whatseparates us as human beings? And we're theonly species that laughs, I think   |
| 02:18:20:02 | CARL REINER          | I don't think many animals have very good jokes  |
| 02:18:24:09 | SUSIE ESSMAN         | You don't see, you know, elephants laughing too much   |
| 02:18:28:01 | CARL REINER          | I mean, they might have a few jokes  |
| 02:18:29:15 | SUSIE ESSMAN         | Maybe chimps laugh. I think chimps might laugh   |
| 02:18:32:00 | CARL REINER          | Ahh, they're probably slapstick jokes  |
| 02:18:33:18 | SUSIE ESSMAN         | Is the Holocaust funny? No. There's nothing about the Holocaust that is funny. But is there ever anything that we can't laugh about?   |
| 02:18:41:16 | MEL BROOKS           | I like dirty comedy, and I like filthy comedy,and I like bad comedy, and I like I do like afat lady slipping on a banana peel and fallingon her ass, I do like that, it is funny, it's good.But I won't go you can't get me on theHolocaust. Next question! And I'll makebelieve that it occurred to me myself. |
| 02:19:11:17 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | Look at that! Oh, how beautiful, when the water hits those rocks. But nature, nature is beautiful.   |
| 02:19:19:17 | HERMANFEUERSTEIN | Makes you forget things.   |
| 02:19:21:09 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | It does, a little bit.   |
| 02:19:24:00 | HREMANFEUERSTEIN | See the problem is, when we are relaxing and having a nice time, that's when it comes back to us.  |
| 02:19:29:14 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | That's true.   |
| 02:19:30:16 | HERMANFEUERSTEIN | If you work, and you're under tension  |

| 02:19:31:02 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | (overlapped) When we enjoy something   |
|-------------|----------------------|--|
| 02:19:33:07 | HERMANFEUERSTEIN | If you enjoy something   |
| 02:19:33:07 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | Yeah, that's when I remember it. But certainthings I would love to remember and I don't. Idon't remember, for example, when I wasseparated from Klara.   |
| 02:19:49:02 | HERMANFEUERSTEIN | Your sister.   |
| 02:19:50:00 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | My sister. I don't remember that moment, howI felt, you know? Was I afraid, was I angry,was I sad? Why don't I remember feelinganything?   |
| 02:20:06:21 | HERMANFEUERSTEIN | People who felt too much didn't make it.   |
| 02:20:10:21 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | You may be right. I remember there was a girlin our camp who was a mime, and she used toperform for us. And I am almost sure thatwhen I saw her doing that, I smiled. I'm sure Idid. I can't imagine not to.   |
| 02:20:38:11 | GONDOLA SINGER       | (singing)Che bella cosa na jurnata 'e sole,Ma n'atu soleChiù bello, oje ne'O sole mioSta 'nfronte a te!O soleO sole mioSta 'nfronte a te!Sta 'nfronte a te!  |
| 02:20:54:20 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | This is such a beautiful song. You see, this song reminds me of a lot of things.   |
| 02:21:21:21 | RENEE FIRESTONE      | That song. Before, just before we weredeported, we still were at the swimming pooland never thinking of what's going to happento us, this song was played constantly, all daylong. And I remember English, English wordsto it, like "It's now or never." And every time Ihear that song I remember that, that it was |

|             |   | now or never, and we didn't know. I'm sorry.   |
|-------------|---|--|
|             |   | It's now or never, come hold me tight And itsays, " Tomorrow will be too late." It was over."Kiss me my darling, be mine tonight"   |
| 02:22:30:08 | SONG: IT'S NOW ORNEVER(Song; Elvis Presley) | <pre>(singing) It's now or never Come hold me tight Kiss me my darling Be mine tonight Tomorrow will be too late It's now or never My love won't wait When I first saw you With your smile so tender My heart was captured My soul surrendered I'd spend a lifetime Waiting for the right time Now that your near The time is here at last</pre> |
| 02:23:14:22 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                     | But here we are, the sun is going down, and I think it's time to go home.  |
| 02:23:20:22 | HERMANFEUERSTEIN                                | It's sunset for all of us, huh?  |
| 02:23:23:00 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                     | Sunset   |
| 02:23:23:10 | HERMANFEUERSTEIN                                | It's a good thing that the sun sets slowly.  |
| 02:23:27:01 | RENEE FIRESTONE                                     | It does, it does.  |
| 02:23:31:16 | SONG: IT'S NOW ORNEVER(Elvis Presley)       | (singing)It's now or neverCome hold me tightKiss me my darlingBe mine tonightTomorrow will be too lateIt's now or neverMy love won't wait  |
| 02:24:00:09 | CARL REINER   | Oh yeah, here's a Holocaust joke I remember.We did it in the office of the "Show of Shows."  |

| 02:24:06:00                           | MEL BROOKS           | I saw a roll of Scotch tape  |
| 02:24:07:17                           | CARL REINER          | I took a bunch of Scotch tape and Scotch taped my nose, my ears I had all my face Scotch taped   |
| 02:24:14:03                           | MEL BROOKS           | My nose smashed and my eyebrow covered my eye and my lips were all twisted   |
| 02:24:22:14                           | CARL REINER          | "Goddamn Nazis! The goddamn Nazis did this to me! The Nazis!"  |
| 02:24:28:08                           | MEL BROOKS           | (crying) "The Nazis! The Nazis did this to me!"  |
| 02:24:32:05                           | CARL REINER          | "They did that to you, they did that to you,they maimed?" "Yeah they knocked me tothe ground"  |
| 02:24:36:06                           | MEL BROOKS           | "They snuck into my foxhole"   |
| 02:24:38:10                           | CARL REINER          | "They took the Scotch tape, they put it all overmy face!" (laughs) That was the joke.  |
| 02:24:43:13                           | MEL BROOKS           | You know, I got a big laugh in the writers' room.  |
| 02:24:45:20                           | CARL REINER          | (laughs) I don't know why that tickles me.   |
| 02:24:48:11                           | MEL BROOKS           | And I still have a little piece of my upper lipthat hurts from that. That was about fifty yearsago.  |
| 02:24:54:16                           | GILBERTGOTTFRIED | An old concentration camp survivor buys alottery ticket. He wins $200 million dollars.The reporter is talking to him and he says,"Uh, well, tell me what you're going to do withthe money." And the old Jewish man says,"Well, I'm going to erect a gigantic statuehonoring Hitler." And the reporter goes, "Waita minute, you were in the concentrationcamps, why would you erect a statuehonoring Hitler?" And he goes (displaying hisforearm), "Where do you think I got thenumber?" |

| 02:25:35:05 | SARAH SILVERMAN | There's a joke I heard, then I heard it was atrue story about Walter Matthau and his wife.Do you know what I'm going to tell you? Wellhere's the joke. Old, elderly couple go to, uh,they go to a tour of Auschwitz. They're on likea tour, you know, like in the '90s, whatever.And they get in a big fight and they're notspeaking to each other the entire tour. Andthey get back on the bus, and the husbandsays, "You're right, I was wrong, I'm sorry."And the wife says, "Oh, now you're sorry, nowthat you ruined Auschwitz for me!" |
