00:46:26:18	DAME KIDU in interview	DAME KIDU: People were hoping that the company would build houses and things but there is no obligation. I've told them the company is not obliged to do anything, you were living on the land that the court has now said belongs to them and I'm not going to question the court decision – it belongs to Paga Hill. So what has been done so far is more than what is being given to any other evicted person around this city. Hopefully it can start to set a standard.

00:56:19:08	MS KRIS & LINA sitting at desk SUPER: INTERNATIONAL STATE CRIME INITIATIVE LONDON	KRIS: Ok so it's interesting that the first thing you said is that the cases was not what you expected?
00:56:28:00	WS KRIS & LINA sitting at desk	LINA: I thought their was a lot more protection of settlers ...
00:56:30:12	MS KRIS & LINA sitting at desk SUPER: LINA JOHNSON, Researcher, International State Crime Initiative	LINA: ...than there was. It's very much focused on the human rights of the people who are trying to evict them.
00:56:36:12	CU LINA	LINA: I was looking into and I wanted to ask you, regarding housing or a national policy for housing - is there anything like that?
00:56:43:07	CU KRIS	KRIS: There's a national urbanisation strategy. And that was developed under the auspice of, that was driven by ...
00:56:45:18	CU LINA	KRIS (V/O): ...predominately by DAME KIDU Carol Kidu. And she's um helped to relocate some of the residents...

00:56:51:14	CU KRIS	KRIS: ... to land at Six Mile which is land at Six Mile which is customarily owned so they have no security of tenure. They are just there; they have no rights. The customary owners are, um have been given a sum of money to accommodate them but there is no legally enforceable right for those community to stay at Six Mile. If those customary land owners go, 'well thank you very much for the money ...
00:57:14:12	MCU LINA	KRIS (V/O): ... we don't like them'
00:57:16:00	CU KRIS	KRIS: That's it, they'll be out.

00:59:45:20	DAME KIDU in interview	DAME KIDU IV: It's not perfect but it, there's been a genuine attempt the company to do a really something that is useful. And perhaps they are being too ambitious to be quite frank. I think the company is being even over ambitious about what they want to achieve for the people who have been moved because you know there's a, a stage were you can end up creating a dependency mentality.

01:12:20:03	MCU JOE in interview	JOE: Maybe this country must have two laws - one for the small people like me and one for the argh the leaders, the parliamentarians or whoever is up there.
01:12:48:24	CU DAME KIDU in interview	DAME KIDU: Do you have another question? I don't really know how I can answer that in a way that is because the fact is the way it happened is the way it happened. You know, would I have done anything differently well probably in retrospect if I'd known what was going to happen I wouldn't have gone in and I would have said 'oh to hell with it', cause it happens all around the city all the time - you know what I mean?
01:13:18:17	EWS aerial of Paga Hill cleared	JOE (V/O): We'll be taking the matter to court again. When I stand up for what I believe in you can not easily move me.
01:13:32:15	CU JOE in interview	JOE: People might say that 'do I get scared?' Yes I'm scared but who else is going to stand up and fight for what is right? I mean if I don't do it who else is going to do it?

01:13:59:11	CU JOE in interview	JOE: If I start thinking negatively that will effect me. So what I'm doing now is, I have to think positive, I have to be brave because I put my hand up. I have to, I have to be that someone that can really stand up. That's what I'm doing.
